INT. MINI GOLF-DAY

A golf ball is being placed on a green. A pair of golf-shoes is seen nearby.

WAYNE:

I think everyone has a destiny. Some people spend their whole lives trying to find theirs. But I've already found mine.

Title: This spring....

INT. ROOM-DAY

A brief shot of Wayne posing with a case full of trophies and medals is shown. The trophies look suspiciously fake.

Title: Experience the most eye-opening documentary since "Super-Size Me"

INT. MINI GOLF BUILDING-DAY

Wayne snaps at PETER to give him one of the clubs from the golf bag, which are all putters. Peter hands him a putter, not looking away from his phone. He keeps his hand extended and open as Wayne tips him some cash. Peter pockets the money, with his eyes still glued to his phone.

Title: Winner of 7 academy* awards

*Academy may or may not actually exist

WAYNE:

I don't play for fun. I play to win. And I make sure everyone knows that i mean business when I'm on the green.

As Wayne is preparing to take the shot, a young BOY is seen waiting in the background. The boy is oblivious to Wane's existence. Wayne begins to sweat.

Title: "It's...something." -Some buzzfeed writer

Wayne glares at him and then squares up to hit the ball. He licks his lips, and then looks at the hole one last time. Wayne lifts the club and hits the ball. It slowly rolls toward the hole. Wayne watches intensely.

Title: Experience...

The ball rolls into the hole. Wayne leaps for joy and gets right in the boys face. The boy begins to cry. Wayne turns around with a clenched fist of victory, as he mouths "I am the best."

Title: MINI-GOLF, BIG HEART.

WAYNE:
I'm basically the Tom Cruise of mini-golf.
